

Friday, October 26th, 2012

Auditorium de l'espace Saint-Martin,
199 bis rue Saint-Martin, Paris 3^e
Language: English/French

Organisation Committee: Expertise Committee of the ITMO Public Health

- ▶ 8.45-9.30 AM Welcome
- ▶ 9.30-10.00 AM Opening: Agnès Buzyn, chairwoman of The French National Cancer Institute (INCa) and Jean-Paul Moatti, Director of the ITMO Public Health

10.00-12.00 AM Session 1 Chair: Archana Singh-Manoux, Deputy Director of the ITMO Public Health

Keynote Lecture: Sir Michael Marmot (University College, London) - Taking action on social determinants of health

- ▶ Discussant: Denis Hémon (CESP, Paris)
 - ▶ Marie-Aline Charles (CESP, Paris) - The importance of the DOHAD hypothesis for social inequalities in health.
 - ▶ Basile Chaix (DS3 Inserm/UPMC, Paris) - Neighborhood, mobility and health: strengthening the partnership between public health and urban planning.
 - ▶ Rosemary Dray-Spira (CESP, Paris) - Chronic diseases and employment: the impact on social inequalities.

▶ 12.00 AM Lunch

1.30-3.30 PM Session 2 Chair: Pierre Demeulenaere, GEMASS University Paris IV

Keynote Lecture: Alain Trannoy (Aix-Marseille School of Economics) - Theories of economic and social justice: what can we learn for equity in health?

- ▶ Discussant: Thierry Lang (University Toulouse III)
 - ▶ Patrick Peretti Watel (SESSTIM, Aix-Marseille University) - Primary prevention: does it increase inequalities in health?
 - ▶ Florence Jusot (Paris-Dauphine University) - Inequalities in access to care: are they widening in France?
 - ▶ Nathalie Fourcade (DREES, Ministry of Health and Social Affairs) - Health care insurance in France: its impact on income distribution between generations and social groups.

► 3.30 PM Coffee break

3.45-5.45 PM Session 3 Chair: Alfred Spira, University Paris Sud XI

Keynote Lecture: Peter Hall (Harvard University) and Rosemary Taylor (Tufts University)
Successful Societies: How Institutions and Culture Affect Health

- Discussant: Henri Bergeron (CSO/CNRS, Paris)
 - Andrew Clark (Paris School of Economics) - Social interactions and self-perceived health and well-being.
 - Francis Guillemin and Joelle Kivits (University of Lorraine) - Social determinants of health-related quality of life.
 - Jean-François Dartigues (ISPED / University Bordeaux Segalen) - Incidence of chronic diseases in the aging population: do social factors matter?

5.45-6.15 PM Closing Session

- Robert Castel (EHESS) - Concluding Remarks: a critical viewpoint
- Patrice Bourdelais (Director of the Institute for Humanities and Social Sciences, CNRS/Alliance Athena)
- André Syrota (CEO of Inserm/Chairman of Aviesan)

Registration on: <http://colloqueitmosantepublique2012.dakini.fr>