

EMBO Meeting 2012: the ITMO BCDE will allocate travel grants to PhD students or young post-doctoral fellows

In the frame of the EMBO Meeting 2012 \(22nd to 25th of September 2012, Nice, France\), the Multi-Organization Thematic Institute Cell biology, development and evolution (ITMO BCDE) will award up to 4 500-euros scholarships to students preparing their thesis or PhD graduates during their first post-doctoral training, who will present their research results orally or in poster sessions in the scientific domains of the ITMO BCDE.

The applicants – without restriction of nationality – must carry out their activity in French laboratories related to the French National Alliance for Life and Health Sciences: « Aviesan ».

To apply : send the author's name, an abstract and a cover letter, in english (maximum 2 pages) as well as a contact email address for the response to christine.lemaitre@aviesan.fr before the 30th of May 2012 (the laureates will be notified at the beginning of June).